

TOO MANY ERRORS TO WIN.

POOR WORK BY THE NEW YORK GIVES PITTSBURGH THE VICTORY.

Brooklyn has an easy time in winning Chicago White Sox in Great Shape—Philadelphia a Winner—The Eastern Club in the American Association. Well-Other Games and News.

Yesterday's results in the National League were as follows:

Pittsburgh, 4; New York, 3.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

FAVORITES GET THE PURSES.

BOOKMAKERS PAY OUT MONEY ON FIVE FIRST CHOICE HORSES.

Mr. Dwyer bets $10,000 on his three-year-old colt, Defaulter, in the two-year-old Trotting race at Belmont.

Backers of favorites made nearly a clean sweep on the hill yesterday. Five first choice horses and one second choice winner the purses.

Very heavy. Michael F. Dwyer is credited with having placed $10,000 on his colt, Defaulter, in the race for three-year-olds.

A veteran bookmaker says that more of the fraternity have become bankrupt from heavy playing of first choice horses than in any other way.

The sport began with a dash of three-year-olds, the colt, Defaulter, at the head of the home stretch. Defaulter and St. Patrick came in with a rush at the finish, Defaulter in 2:38, St. Patrick (15 to 1) by a neck. Time 2:38 to 10 1/2.

Six ran in the second race, a dash of six and a half furlongs, for three-year-olds. Michael F. Dwyer's colt, with Hamilton riding, was an even money favorite. Sir George, with Taylor riding, was second choice at odds of 5 to 1.

Upsetting a strong second choice at odds of 5 to 1, Sir George led the race, but was overtaken and dropped back last in the first furlong. Coming at three furlongs he took second place again and held it to the finish, beating Sir George by a length and a half. Emma J. came third, beating Sir George by a length and a half.

The following were the scores in the American Association yesterday:

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.
Atlantic City, 4; Philadelphia, 3.
Atlantic City, 4; Philadelphia, 3.

WASHINGTON, D. C.
Washington, 4; Philadelphia, 3.
Washington, 4; Philadelphia, 3.

ST. LOUIS, MO.
St. Louis, 4; Philadelphia, 3.
St. Louis, 4; Philadelphia, 3.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

THE RECORD.
Pittsburgh, 12; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 18; Cincinnati, 7.
Philadelphia, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Chicago, 11; Boston, 6.

TROTTING AT BELMONT.

A Spirited Race at Belmont.

Philadelphia, May 12.—From Belmont, where the Southern Circuit began last week, the harness racers came to Belmont Park, where the sport began this afternoon.

The race was a two-year-old Trotting race, the most important of the season. It attracted the attendance, but the local turf was out in full force and speculation was lively.

The two trotting events had large fields, and in the 2:30 class the chestnut gelding Martin E. landed his maiden race in fast time for this early season, placing his record at 2:27 1/2.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

With the odds at 10 to 1, Martin E. was a strong favorite in the race for three-year-olds. It was a close race, but Martin E. won by a head.

LIABILITIES OF THE M. A. C.

MEMBERS CALLED UPON TO HELP DECREASE THE INDEBTEDNESS.

The Madison Avenue Palace cost $270,000. Some $100,000 has been expended at the management of the club. The club house is to have been offered to the New York Athletic Club.

On Nov. 7, 1877, four young men met at the Knickerbocker Casino in Sixth avenue and organized the Manhattan Athletic Club. On Nov. 20, 1880, thirteen years later, the club formally opened the magnificent palace at Madison avenue and Forty-fifth street, the construction of which was now placed at $270,000.

The rise and progress of the organization must certainly be classed as remarkable. At some time it has been an even matter that serious discussion exists in the water that the club is in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

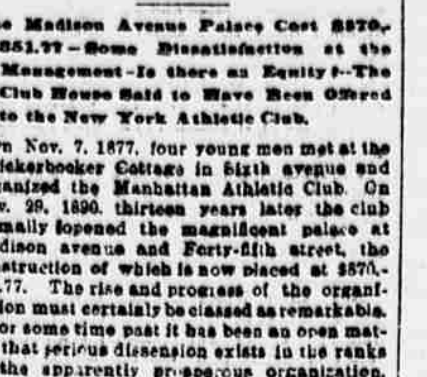

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

The history of the building of the big club house has many interesting points. When the plan was projected the M. A. C. had neither money nor equity to consider such an undertaking. But the clique which had ruled the club since its organization was a clique of the most unscrupulous and dishonest.

Walter Foster, the Treasurer, bought the ground and the building. The bonds were mortgaged through the title, but the men cutting up the money did not propose to lose it or have a white squint on their hands. The scheme looked bright enough, but just such an emergency as this was provided for, the club was in a position to liquidate the apparently enormous liabilities.

BROOKLYN FURNITURE COMPANY.

500 Ladies' and Gents' Rockers Closing Out to Make Room for our Extensive Alterations.

$4. Worth $6. $5. Worth $9. $6. Worth $10.

The above rockers are made in Oak Antiques or Sixteenth Century Dutch Mahogany upholstered in silk tapestry, Brocade, or Silk. 200 other patterns from $1.50. Bargains in all departments at the

BROOKLYN FURNITURE COMPANY,
Manufacturers and Retailers,
559 TO 571 FULTON ST., BROOKLYN, N. Y.

AN EXCITING WIND-UP.
A Historic Battle for the Second Prize in the Sun Tournament.

Although the first prize had been decided considerably in advance, the second prize was a matter of some interest. The contest was a battle between the two great champions of the Sun Tournament, the two great champions of the Sun Tournament, the two great champions of the Sun Tournament.

The contest was a battle between the two great champions of the Sun Tournament, the two great champions of the Sun Tournament, the two great champions of the Sun Tournament. The contest was a battle between the two great champions of the Sun Tournament, the two great champions of the Sun Tournament, the two great champions of the Sun Tournament.